For Elderly Individuals Instructions and Eligibility Criteria: The Chatham Area Transit Authority (CAT) has a half fare program for eligible elderly persons, and has developed eligibility criteria for this program based on the Federal Transit Administration's (FTA) definition. An "elderly person" means any individual 65 years of age or over. A Medicare card issued to you pursuant to Title II or Title XVIII of the Social Security Act may be used to ride CAT fixed-route for half fare at any time. Simply show your Medicare card to the operator when boarding the bus. If you do not have a Medicare card, you must obtain a CAT half-fare ID card for elderly individuals as set forth below.

Applicants are advised that the information provided herein is not confidential and is open to the Department of Transportation authorized officials for compliance reviews.
